

Version in English

Title in Times New Roman 12, bold with Capitalize each word

Emër Mbiemër¹ Full name of the authors in Times New Roman, 12, placed in order

¹ Name of the institution, department, city, state in Times New Roman, 12, placed in order

The structure should be as follows:

Introduction: Writing in Times New Roman, 12, A short and clear description of the topic selected for the scientific research, emphasizing its importance and purpose in the medical field.

Materials and Methods: Writing in Times New Roman, 12, Description of the sources of information, the type of scientific research used or the statistical method selected for the analysis of the data.

Results: Writing in Times New Roman, 12, Presentation of the collected data and the main findings of the study, in numerical or descriptive form, including the corresponding statistical analyses.

Conclusions: Writing in Times New Roman, 12, The main conclusions reached from the analysis of the data and the comparison with the findings of other similar studies.

Keywords: Writing in Times New Roman, 12, Maximum 5 keywords

References:

Writing in Times New Roman, 12, Listing of the scientific sources used, ensuring that they are published within the last 5 years to guarantee the update and relevance of the information. Maximum 5 references.

